Thank you once again for your incredible gift of love, both in giving and praying for Haiti & Sis. Phyllis.

This year has been fraught with many trials, as gangs have taken over much of the country. Yet, by God's grace and mercy, the compound at Saintard has been protected, and we give Him all the glory.

Through your support, we continue to share the hope of the gospel and meet the pressing needs of those impacted by the ongoing crisis. The people of Haiti need our prayers now more than ever, and we are truly grateful for your faithfulness in standing with us during these challenging times. Your contributions are not just a lifeline—they are a beacon of light pointing to Jesus Christ.

As we look ahead to the coming year, we are reminded of the mission that unites us all: to Revive, Evangelize, and Disciple. This mission is at the heart of everything we do, from sharing the gospel message in word and deed to equipping others to carry the light of Christ to the ends of the earth.
